- 4.1 Unless otherwise stated in the Purchase Order, NPML shall pay that amount of the Purchase Price of the Goods properly due to the Supplier, less any amount which NPML is entitled to withhold, within sixty [60] days after the date of receipt by NPML of a proper invoice for them (respectively).

The Supplier agrees that as soon as it is evident, the Supplier will immediately provide written notice to NPML of any material delays in its inability to meet the delivery date. If Supplier fails to commence work on the Goods on receipt of the Purchase Order, or it appears to NPML that Supplier is not proceeding diligently with performance, or that it may not be able to complete the delivery of the Goods by the required date, or Supplier fails to do so, NPML may terminate the Purchase Order or any part thereof at any time in accordance with the termination provisions of these terms and conditions.
- 7.4 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy, if Goods are not delivered on the required due date(s), or without certificates, identification or documentation in full compliance with NPML's requirements, NPML shall be entitled to refuse the Goods. In that event NPML shall also be entitled to recover from Supplier, by way of liquidated damages and not as a penalty (either directly or by deduction from any monies due or which become due to Supplier) a sum equivalent to 1% of the Purchase Price for each week's delay up to a maximum of 10% of the Purchase Price (or such other amount as may be specified in the Purchase Order), NPML may, in its absolute sole discretion and under no obligation to do so, extend the delivery due date(s) by notice in writing given to the Supplier.
- 7.5 Delivery shall not be deemed complete until all Goods and all other related deliverables (including manuals and all other documentation) and services have actually been received and accepted by NPML notwithstanding any prior payment or agreement by NPML to pay transportation charges.
- 7.6 Goods delivered in excess of the amount specified in the Purchase Order or incorrectly delivered may be refused and returned at Supplier's expense. NPML shall have no obligation to pay for any Goods (including any services) performed in excess of that called for or required by the Purchase Order.
- 7.7 Unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order, delivery terms shall be Free Into Store (FIS Incoterms 2000) to NPML's facility or designated shipment point and Supplier shall bear shipping costs and risk of damage to or loss of the Goods until the Goods are delivered and unloaded at NPML's facility or designated shipment point and delivery acknowledged by NPML.

- 7.8 All equipment, fittings, accessories and documentation which may not have been specifically stated in these terms and conditions, the Purchase Order or the Specification, but which are necessary for the efficient working of the Goods to be supplied shall be deemed to have been included in the Purchase Price. All such items shall be completed and delivered to NPML with the Goods, whether such details are mentioned in the Purchase Order, terms and conditions or Specification or not.
- 7.9 Each package or case shall be clearly marked with Supplier's name and NPML's Purchase Order number and reference (if any), delivery address, Supplier's address, packing list of case content and any other details required by NPML.

If the Goods or any parts thereof are damaged due to faulty or inadequate packing, the damaged Goods or parts thereof shall be repaired or replaced at Supplier's expense whether or not delivery has been accepted. The risk of loss or damage in transit shall always remain with the Supplier.

8. INSPECTION

- 8.1 NPML may, at reasonable times, upon reasonable notice, perform such inspections and/or audit of Supplier's facilities, as NPML deems necessary to satisfy itself that the work on the Goods and/or the performance of the services meets the requirements of the Purchase Order and of Supplier's compliance with applicable laws and regulations and these terms and conditions.

9. DEFECTIVE GOODS OR SERVICES

- 9.1 If any Goods are defective or fail to meet the requirements of NPML's Purchase Order or the warranties set its in these terms and conditions during the Warranty Period (as defined below), NPML reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to either:
- (a) require Supplier to remedy, at Supplier's own expense, any defects that may arise in the Goods and any related work; or
 - (b) return the Goods for repair or replacement or require replacement services within a period of time specified by NPML at Supplier's cost; or
 - (c) carry out any necessary rectification and then charge Supplier's account for such work; or
 - (d) require the Supplier to refund the Purchase Price in full within 30 days of NPML's notice and terminate the Purchase Order. NPML will not be liable to Supplier for any consequential losses or damages as a result of termination under this clause 9.1(d).
- 9.2 "Warranty Period" shall mean the longer of: (i) 18 months after the date the Goods are received by NPML; or (ii) 12 months after the date that the Goods have been put into service for their specified use; provided, however, that in the event a defect or non-conformity to the applicable specifications arises within such period but does not become apparent until such period has expired, the term Warranty Period shall mean the period commencing on the date such defect or non-conformity became apparent and ending 12 months thereafter. The Warranty Period in respect of any repaired, replaced or corrected Goods shall recommence for a further period of 12 months from the date of completion of the repair, replacement or correction of the defect or damage.
- 9.3 NPML's rights under clause 9.1 are, where permitted, in addition to any other right or remedy available under statute or at law including with respect to any claim for damages for any defective, non-complying Goods (including services) which NPML becomes aware of, notwithstanding the expiration of the Warranty Period.

10. STATUTORY AND SAFETY OBLIGATIONS

- 10.1 Supplier shall comply with all relevant statutes, laws, regulations, and its by-laws affecting the making or delivery of the Goods under the Purchase Order.
- 10.2 Supplier shall provide NPML with all information as is reasonably necessary to assist NPML in importing, transporting, using, handling, storing and distributing the Goods in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to a completed Material Safety Data Sheet in a form which meets or exceeds the requirements set out by the Ministry of Health, Labour & Welfare. Supplier agrees to hold NPML harmless from and against all liabilities, claims, fines and penalties that may arise out of the transportation, delivery, use, handling, storing and/or distribution of the Goods resulting from any such information that does not meet the foregoing requirements.
- 10.3 Without limiting the generality of clause 10.2, Supplier shall provide NPML in writing, with such information relating to any materials supplied and /or used by Supplier in connection with the Goods and NPML's Purchase Order and its design, testing, condition and use as is necessary to ensure it will be safe and without risk to health when properly handled, stored, transported and used. Supplier shall supply at Supplier's own expense, certificates of analysis, tests, and certificates of origin as are required by NPML's Purchase Order in connection with the goods or services, or otherwise required by law or by NPML. Invoices will not be processed for payment unless such information is supplied as requested.

11. INDEMNITY & INSURANCE

- 11.1 Supplier shall indemnify NPML (and its successors and assigns) in respect of all loss, damage, liability or injury whatsoever involving any person or property (including third parties and property) and against any action, claim, demand, damages, cost, charge or expenses (including reasonable legal fees, internal processing costs, rework and remanufacturing costs) arising out of or in connection with NPML's Purchase Order, to the extent that the same shall have been caused or contributed to by any breach by Supplier of Supplier's obligations under these terms and conditions or by the negligence or wilful misconduct of Supplier, or its directors, employees or agents, including (without limitation) Supplier's obligations under clause 19 (Anti-Bribery Certification). Such indemnity shall be in addition to any other remedies afforded by law, contract and shall survive termination of the Purchase Order.
- 11.2 Supplier shall also hold NPML indemnified from and against all actions, claims, demands, damages, costs, charges and expenses suffered or incurred by NPML in respect of any patents or other intellectual property rights of a third party, which may be infringed (or claimed to be infringed) by the Goods, or services supplied under NPML's Purchase Order (except infringement resulting from adherence to the Specifications provided to Supplier by NPML provided that the Supplier shall inform NPML of such infringement as soon as reasonably possible upon Supplier's discovery of the same). Supplier shall pay all damages, costs, charge, expenses and legal fees incurred by NPML (including without limitation those awarded against NPML in any such suit or proceeding) and, at NPML's discretion, either (i) at Supplier's expense, obtain through negotiation the right for NPML to purchase and/or use the Goods; or (ii) rework the Goods so as to make them non-infringing while preserving their original functionality; or (iii) replace the Goods with functionally equivalent non-infringing Goods; or (iv) refund NPML the amounts hereunder.

Such insurance policies shall name NPML as an additional insured and shall waive any rights of subrogation against NPML. The insurance policies shall in no way define or limit the obligation of Supplier in the event of loss.

12. DISPUTES & TERMINATION

- 12.1 In the event of any default by Supplier in the performance of any obligations, including without limitation the failure to deliver any Goods or failure to carry out NPML's reasonable instructions, NPML may, where such default is capable of remedy give Supplier written notice to rectify such default in a specified time. If Supplier fails to comply with the requirements of the notice, or in NPML's sole opinion Supplier's default is incapable of remedy to NPML's satisfaction, NPML shall be entitled to terminate the Purchase Order in whole or in part, immediately, by serving notice in writing to Supplier to such effect, without prejudice to any other rights under the Purchase Order or otherwise, and shall have the right to retain any Goods previously supplied under the Purchase Order.
- 12.2 Without limiting any of NPML's legal rights, NPML shall be entitled to terminate its Purchase Order, with immediate effect, if:
- (a) Supplier makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or (being an individual or firm) Supplier becomes bankrupt or (being a company) becomes subject to an administration order or enters into liquidation (otherwise than for the purpose of amalgamation or reconstruction); or

- 12.4 NPML shall be entitled, at any time, to terminate the Purchase Order in whole or in part for its sole convenience, by serving notice on Supplier. Supplier shall cease all performance except to the extent provided in the notice of termination. In such event, NPML shall make payment to Supplier (as full and final settlement of all claims which Supplier may have against NPML as a result of termination) for all work satisfactorily performed up to the date of termination. This shall include the repurchase by NPML at cost of all materials, which have been irrevocably purchased by Supplier for incorporation in the Goods, except to the extent that such materials are:
- (a) damaged or not in their original packaging, or
 - (b) capable of being used by Supplier for other customers, or
 - (c) able to be returned by the Supplier to their seller or re-sold to a third party.
- In no event will NPML be required to reimburse Supplier for indirect, consequential, incidental or special damages, including prospective profit or overheads arising out of or in connection with termination of the Purchase Order.
- 12.5 Supplier acknowledges its obligation to take all reasonable steps to mitigate liabilities arising from such termination.

- 12.6 Termination shall not relieve either party of liability with respect to any prior breach or with respect to rights and obligations based upon any matter which occurred prior to termination.
- 12.7 If the Supplier has a claim or dispute against NPML in connection with the Purchase Order (other than a variation to be dealt with under clause 16), the Supplier must give written notice thereof to NPML, setting out particulars of the claim or dispute. Thereafter representatives of the Supplier and NPML must meet in an attempt to resolve the dispute.

13. TOOLS AND MATERIALS

- 13.1 All special dies, tooling, moulds, patterns, jigs, fixtures, and any other property which NPML furnishes to Supplier or specifically pays for to be used by the Supplier in the performance of this Purchase Order (“Equipment”), shall be and remain NPML’s property, shall be:

Supplier shall indemnify NPML against all actions, claims, demands, damage, liabilities, costs, charges or expenses suffered or incurred by NPML arising from a claim by Supplier’s employees, agents or consultants for bodily injury or death in connection with the operation of the Equipment while in Supplier’s care, custody and control.

- 13.2 Where NPML provides free issue material for incorporation into the work, Supplier shall use such materials economically, and any surplus shall be accounted for to NPML and disposed of in accordance with NPML’s instructions. Waste, loss or damage to such materials arising from poor workmanship or Supplier’s failure to maintain such materials in good order or condition shall be made good at Supplier’s expense, replacements being of equivalent quality and specification and subject to NPML’s approval.

14. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 14.1 Any Specification supplied by NPML to Supplier, or specifically produced by Supplier for NPML, in connection with NPML’s Purchase Order, together with the copyright, design rights or any other intellectual property rights in the Specification or anything made, delivered or performed by Supplier in which intellectual property rights may subsist, shall be NPML’s exclusive property. Supplier shall not disclose to any third party any such Specification or other proprietary information except to the extent:
- (a) that it is or becomes public knowledge through no fault of Supplier,
 - (b) as required by law, provided that Supplier gives NPML immediate notice of such legal requirement and cooperate with NPML’s attempts to acquire an injunctive or protective order, or
 - (c) for the purpose of fulfilling the Purchase Order provided that the third party is under an obligation of confidentiality no less stringent than stated herein.

Supplier shall not use any Specification or proprietary information except to the extent that it is required for the purpose of fulfilling NPML’s Purchase Order.

- 14.2 Where NPML commissions Supplier to produce a design in accordance with the Purchase Order, the design supplied by Supplier shall be capable of being implemented to achieve the purpose(s) specified in NPML’s Purchase Order. Copyright, design rights or any other intellectual property rights in the design shall be NPML’s exclusive property.
- 14.3 All copyright or other intellectual property rights in the work produced by Supplier (other than design rights under 14.2) shall be assigned to NPML and Supplier undertakes to execute all documents and take all steps necessary to secure to NPML all rights assigned by this clause. Moral rights must vest in accordance with clause 14.1.

- 14.4 Supplier warrants that the Supplier's performance under the Purchase Order will not infringe the rights of any third party and will not have been previously assigned, licensed or otherwise encumbered.

15. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 15.1 If NPML discloses or grants Supplier access to any research, development, technical, manufacturing, financial, or other commercial information or "know-how" of a confidential nature, including but not limited to NPML's products, technology, equipment, manufacturing processes, inventions, patent applications, designs, design applications, computer hardware and software or any other technical or commercial information which is personal to NPML and is not common knowledge among competitors to whom it may be useful and which may give NPML an advantage over its existing and prospective competitors, whether reduced to writing or not, Supplier will not use or disclose any such information to any other person or company at any time, without the prior written consent of a Corporate Officer of NPML and at NPML's request. Supplier shall execute NPML's standard Confidentiality Agreement.
- 15.2 All of NPML's designs, drawings, memoranda and data provided by NPML shall at all times remain NPML's property and shall be returned to NPML on request. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Supplier shall not be entitled to use such information to develop or apply for any intellectual property rights, whether rights to patents, designs, trade secrets, copyrights, databases, know-how or otherwise, registered or unregistered, including applications or forms of protection equivalent or similar in effect to any of such rights anywhere in the world.
- 15.3 Supplier's obligations set out in this Clause 15 shall survive the termination of the Purchase Order or these terms and conditions.

16. VARIATIONS

- 16.1 NPML may by written notice or change order make any changes to the Purchase Order, including changes to the quantities originally ordered, the Specifications, drawings or delivery date(s). Supplier shall perform all variations to the work required by NPML without delay. Supplier shall promptly advise us in writing of the reasonable effect of the change on price and delivery and an equitable adjustment shall be made, to the extent deemed necessary by NPML. Any claim for adjustment must be asserted and written notice thereof provided by Supplier to NPML within 30 days from the date the variation is ordered. Unless NPML disputes the notice (which NPML may do so at any time), NPML will accept the effect on price and delivery (without affecting the balance of the terms and conditions). If NPML does dispute the effect, and if the parties cannot resolve the dispute by agreement between the contract managers for each party, the parties must meet and agree the effect and if they cannot agree, then it is to be determined by an independent engineering expert acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator appointed by NPML whose costs are borne by NPML and Supplier equally. The rules of the expert determination process shall be the rules of the Japanese Commercial Arbitration Association. The Expert's decision, after receipt of submissions by the parties, will be binding on the parties.
- 16.2 No variation or qualification of the Purchase Order, these terms and conditions or the Specifications shall be valid unless agreed by NPML in writing. Any action on NPML's part in variance with such documents shall not constitute a waiver of them and NPML shall continue to be entitled to rely upon all the terms and conditions. NPML shall also be entitled to rely on any statement, warranty, or representation made by any of Supplier's employees or agents.
- 16.3 Supplier shall carry out variations which are required, and which have arisen as a result of an act or omission or default of Supplier, at Supplier's own cost.

17. FORCE MAJEURE

- 17.1 Under no circumstances shall NPML have any liability for any breach relating to non-performance or underperformance caused by extreme weather, natural disaster, fire, accident or other act of God; strike, lock out or other labor shortage or disturbance; lock down, boycott, embargo or tariff; terrorism or act of terrorism, war or war condition or civil disturbance or riot; failure of public or private telecommunications networks;

delay of carriers or other industrial, agricultural or transportation disturbance; failure of normal sources of supply; epidemics, pandemics, contagion, disease or quarantine; law, regulation or any act of government; or any other cause beyond NPML's reasonable control. NPML's performance shall be excused and deemed suspended during the continuation of such event or events and, for a reasonable time thereafter, delayed or adjusted accordingly.

- 17.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, NPML shall have the right to terminate this Purchase Order if the delivery of Goods is delayed more than 60 days due to such event, without additional liability to either party.

18. SUB-CONTRACTING

- 18.1 NPML's Purchase Order is placed subject to the work being carried out by Supplier and no assignment, subcontracting or transfer is permissible without specific prior arrangement with NPML in writing. No assignment or subcontract (even with NPML's consent) shall relieve Supplier of any obligations under the Purchase Order. Any purported assignment, transfer or subcontract without such written consent shall be void and ineffective.

19. ANTI-BRIBERY CERTIFICATION

- 19.1 Supplier certifies that (i) it shall comply with all applicable anti-corruption and anti-bribery laws and regulations, including without limitation, the UK Bribery Act, U.S Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and any local anti-bribery legislation, and (ii) all information provided by Supplier to NPML during NPML's pre-contractual due diligence process (including any due diligence documentation, if any) is complete, truthful and accurate.
- 19.2 The Supplier has not and will not (either directly or indirectly) offer to pay, or authorise such offer or payment, of any money or anything of value to improperly or corruptly influence any government official or any other person or third party in order to gain an improper business advantage and has not accepted, and will not accept in the future, such a payment.

20. CLAIMS

- 20.1 All losses, damages, liabilities, claims, demands, costs, charges or expenses for which Supplier is liable to NPML may be deducted from any monies due or becoming due to Supplier, or may be recovered from Supplier by action at law or otherwise.

21. WAIVER, SEVERABILITY AND OTHER

- 21.1 No waiver or forbearance by NPML of any of its rights under the Purchase Order or any provision(s) of these terms and conditions shall preclude NPML from enforcing any of its legal rights whatsoever.
- 21.2 If anything in these terms or conditions or Purchase Order is unenforceable, illegal or void, then it is severed and the rest of the terms and conditions or Purchase Order remains in force.
- 21.3 No rule of construction shall apply to the disadvantage of any party on the basis that the terms and conditions or Purchase Order was drafted by that party.

22. SURVIVAL

- 22.1 All provisions of these terms and conditions and the Purchase Order setting out representations, warranties, indemnification obligations, confidentiality, non-solicitation and non-competition obligations by either party, all obligations which occurred prior to termination of the Purchase Order and the general provisions herein shall survive the termination, cancellation and expiration of the Purchase Order.

23. GOVERNING LAW

23.1 The construction, validity and performance of this Purchase Order shall be governed by Japanese law and Supplier agrees to submit to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the Tokyo District Court.

24. EXEMPTION

24.1 The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and Articles 509, 510 and 526 of the Japanese Commercial Code are not applicable to any agreement between the parties.

25. ENTIRETY

25.1 NPML's Purchase Order, these terms and conditions of purchase, the Specification and confidentiality agreement, if applicable, constitute the entire agreement between NPML and Supplier and supersede all prior understandings and agreements written or oral. Should any error, omission, deficiency, ambiguity, or contradiction occur within the various parts of the Purchase Order documentation or between the documentation and any applicable code, law or statutory regulations, Supplier shall immediately and in writing, bring the same to NPML's attention, and shall not proceed or continue with those obligations affected until written clarification by NPML has been received. Any and all additional costs incurred by either party as a result of Supplier failing to notify NPML shall solely be to Supplier's account.
